Selection and implementation of accounting software is an important success factor, especially for nonprofits. Nonprofit accounting encompasses diverse entities with different sources of revenue, income restrictions, and budgeting requirements. Now, more than ever, tax exempt organizations must be efficient and effective in managing their finances. In this session, the presenters will focus on:

Evaluating needs

Comparison of leading nonprofit accounting systems

Planning a conversion

Technology considerations

Integration with related software

Training and support

Who Should Attend:

Executive Directors, Business Managers & CFOs

Sponsored By:

The Technology Group, LLC

Mark Torello, Principal

Camille Livsey, Manager, Consulting Services

There is no charge to attend this event

About Sage MIP Fund Accounting...

For more than 25 years, Sage MIP Fund Accounting has been helping nonprofit and government organizations of all sizes track and report on multiple funds, across multiple budget periods; plan and manage budgets; maximize grants; and produce accurate, customized reports. Over the years, the software has been honored with numerous awards, including perfect five-star product reviews from top accounting industry publications, such as CPA Technology Advisor.

About The Technology Group...

The Technology Group provides turnkey accounting and technology solutions to nonprofit organizations. Our parent company, Whittlesey & Hadley, is one of Connecticut's leading accounting firms. Together we serve over 200 of the area's nonprofits, so we've got an internal knowledge base that's built on information from nonprofits just like yours. Our goal is to help you address your needs by sharing information and our experience.

About CCPA...

The Connecticut Community Providers Association represents organizations that provide services and supports for children and adults with disabilities and significant challenges including people with substance-use disorders, mental illness, developmental and physical disabilities.

CCPA operates three divisions: Adult Behavioral Health, Children's Mental Health & Substance Abuse, and Developmental Disabilities, and is the lead advocate for rehabilitation and behavioral health services providers at the state legislature and with state agencies.
